

PROJECT PROPOSAL FORM – Joy! 2005

Title	Joy! 2005
Origin	Youth Challenge Singapore
Beneficiaries	Redhill Senior Citizens' Moral Society, Students from Junior Colleges all over the Island, The Senior Citizens involved in this project, People who witness the activity and are inspired to take the lead and be involved as well.
Partners	Lead organization	Youth Challenge Singapore
	Youth organizations	Youth Challenge Singapore
	Other organizations	Redhill Senior Citizens' Moral Society
Duration	4 months for entire project – Planning Stage 2 ½ months, Liaison with Moral Society and Arrangement 1 ½ months, Actual Activity 4 hours.
Budget	US $1500.00
Theme	Life and Love in Islands
Priority Issue	To bridge the Generational Gap as a result of Modernization
Goal	To inculcate a sense of heritage and ancestry in the young.
Objective(s)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To bring joy and laughter into the lives of lonely elderly 2. To promote understanding between the younger and older generation 3. To provide an avenue of learning for young people outside classroom conditions.
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Chinese New Year Steamboat Dinner to be held. - 3 Volunteers to sit with 7 elderly at a table, assisting them in their meals and communicating with them. - Cultural performances involving music and song to be held by volunteers. - Volunteers to host event with the Cantonese dialect.
Action Needed	Need to call up students from various junior colleges to find out if they would be interested in taking part in this activity, as well as to contribute their time and talent. Need to get written endorsement from Youth Challenge.	