

Irina Bykhovskaya, Professor in Theory and History of Culture,

Head of the 'Department for Cultural Problems of Socialization',

Russian Institute for Cultural Research, Moscow

Research and publications: more than 300 publications in Russian, English, French and other languages devoted to methodological and applied problems in the field of 'Education & Art', Socialization, Leisure time and youth

Projects participation: about 20 International projects, incl. "Values and Leisure Time of Children: Comparative Analysis" (Russia-Denmark, 1994–1996); " Young Generation Values and Leisure Time" (Germany, Russia, Czech Republic, 1995–1998); "A must or A-muse. Art and Culture in Education: Policy and Practice in Europe" (expert from Russia, 2000-2001); "Cultural Traditions in Modern Education and Recreation" (about 60 countries, 2000-2008); and oth.

Teaching Experience: since 1980 - present: Lecture, then a professor at some Moscow Universities
