

House Of Music

To Whom It May Concern:

Due to the Article of Association of the Iran House of Music, safeguarding the Radif of Iranian music is amongst the duties of this NGO institution, with about 9000 members, more than half of whom are involved with the Radif of Iranian music. The nomination of the Radif of Iranian Music for registration in the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of UNESCO is with free, prior and informed consent of this institution and its general assembly, as the representative of the society of Iranian musicians.

To Whom It May Concern:

The Council for Safeguarding the Radif of Iranian Music, as the representative of the bearers of this traditional repertory, highly recommends the registration of the radif in the representative list of UNESCO for the Intangible Cultural Heritage. This council makes every effort, in its capacity, to safeguard and promote this phenomenon as the main emblem of Iranian traditional music.
