UNDER THE AUSPICES OF UNESCO (CATEGORY 2)

The Government of the Republic of Indonesia

and

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization,
Having regard to the Medium-Term Strategy for 2014-2021, approved by UNESCO's
General Conference at its 37th session (37 C/4) and the 1972 World Heritage
Convention of UNESCO,

Underlining that Strategic Objective 7 of the said Strategy is "Protecting, promoting and transmitting heritage",

Having regard to the resolution (ref. xx) whereby UNESCO General Conference seeks to favour international cooperation in respect of promoting, facilitating and supporting collaboration between Member States of UNESCO and the States Parties to the 1972 World Heritage Convention in the Southeast Asian region (ASEAN countries -including Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Lao People's Democratic Republic, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Viet Nam, Papua New Guinea and Timor Leste) in the field of human evolution, adaptations and dispersals during the Pleistocene and Early Holocene eras,

Considering that the Director-General has been authorized by the General Conference to conclude with the Government of the Republic of Indonesia, an agreement in conformity with the draft that was submitted to the General Conference,

Desirous of defining the terms and conditions governing the framework for cooperation with UNESCO that shall be granted to the said Institute/Centre in this Agreement,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

the Regional Centre for Human Evolution, Adaptations and Dispersals in Southeast Asia (CHEADSEA), as provided for under this Agreement, hereinafter referred to as “the Centre”.

Article 3 – Purpose of the Agreement

The purpose of this Agreement is to define the terms and conditions governing collaboration between UNESCO and the Government concerned and also the rights and obligations stemming therefrom for the parties.

Article 4 – Legal status

4.1 The Centre shall be independent of UNESCO.

4.2 The Government shall ensure that the Centre enjoys within its territory the functional autonomy necessary for the execution of its activities and the legal capacity: to contract; to institute legal proceedings; to acquire and dispose of movable and immovable property.

Article 5 – Constitutive Act

The constitutive act of the Centre must include provisions describing precisely:

- (a) the legal status granted to the Centre, within the national legal system, the legal capacity necessary to exercise its functions and to receive funds, obtain payments for services rendered, and acquire all means necessary for its functioning;
- (b) a governing structure for the Centre allowing UNESCO representation within its governing body.

Article 6 – Functions/objectives

The functional goal of this Centre is to build human resource capacities for the realization of UNESCO strategic objectives with regard to the Human Evolution, Adaptations, Dispersals and Social Development (HEADS) Programme, through:

- development of research and conservation methods, techniques, and technologies,
- training and capacity-building;
- facilitation of regional collaboration; and
- communication of the results of this research to the scientific community and to the general public.

Article 7 – Governing Board

1. The Centre shall be guided and overseen by a Governing Board renewed every three years and include:

- (a) a representative of the Government concerned or his/her appointed representative;
- (b) representatives of Member State(s), which have sent to the Centre notification for membership, in accordance with the stipulations of Article 10, paragraph 2 and have expressed interest in being represented on the Board;
- (c) a representative of the Director-General of UNESCO.
- (d) a representative of the HEADS Programme

2. The Governing Board shall:

4. The Governing Board shall adopt its own rules of procedure. For its first meeting the procedure shall be established by the Government and UNESCO.

Article 8 – UNESCO's contribution

1. UNESCO may provide assistance, as needed, in the form of technical assistance for the programme activities of the Centre, in accordance with the strategic goals and objectives of UNESCO by:
- (a) providing the assistance of its experts in the specialized fields of the Centre;
  - (b) engaging in temporary staff exchanges when appropriate, whereby the staff concerned will remain on the payroll of the dispatching organizations;
  - (c) seconding members of its staff temporarily, as may be decided by the Director-General on an exceptional basis if justified by the implementation of a joint activity/project within a strategic programme priority area.
2. In all the cases listed above, such assistance shall not be undertaken except within the provisions of UNESCO's Programme and Budget, and UNESCO will provide Member States with accounts relating to the use of its staff and associated costs.

Article 9 – Contribution by the Government

1. The Government shall provide all the resources, either financial or in kind, needed for the administration and proper functioning of the Centre.
2. The Government undertakes to:
- (a) make available to the Centre for the Secretariat's facilities
  - (b) entirely assume the maintenance of the premises for the Centre's Secretariat
  - (c) contribute to the Centre a total amount of IDR 6.000.000.000 per year for the first 6 years.
  - (d) make available to the Centre the administrative staff necessary for the performance of its functions, which shall comprise: five full-time staff (at maximum).

Article 10 – Participation

1. The Centre shall encourage the participation of Member States and Associate Members of UNESCO which, by their common interest in the objectives of the Centre, desire to cooperate with the Centre.
2. Member States and Associate Members of UNESCO wishing to participate in the Centre's activities, as provided for under this Agreement, shall send to the Centre notification to this effect. The head shall inform the parties to the agreement and other Member States of the receipt of such notifications.

Article 11 – Responsibility

As the Centre is legally separate from UNESCO, the latter shall not be legally responsible for the acts or omissions of the Centre, and shall also not be subject to any legal process, and/or bear no liabilities of any kind, be they financial or otherwise, with the exception of the provisions expressly laid down in this Agreement.

Article 12 – Evaluation

1. UNESCO may, at any time, carry out an evaluation of the activities of the Centre in order to ascertain:

- (a) whether the Centre makes a significant contribution to the UNESCO's strategic programme objectives and expected results aligned with the four-year programmatic period of C/5 document (Programme and Budget), including the two global priorities of the Organization, and related sectoral or programme priorities and themes;
- (b) whether the activities effectively pursued by the Centre are in conformity with those set out in this Agreement.

2. UNESCO shall, for the purpose of the review of this Agreement, conduct an evaluation of the contribution of the category 2 Centre to UNESCO strategic programme objectives, to be funded by the host country or Institute/Centre.

3. UNESCO undertakes to submit to the Government, at the earliest opportunity, a report on any evaluation conducted.

4. Following the results of an evaluation, each of the contracting parties shall have the option of requesting a revision of its contents or of denouncing the Agreement, as envisaged in Articles 16 and 17.

Article 13 – Use of UNESCO name and logo

1. The Centre may mention its affiliation with UNESCO. It may therefore use after its title the mention “under the auspices of UNESCO”.

2. The Centre is authorized to use the UNESCO logo or a version thereof on its letterheaded paper and documents including electronic documents and web pages in accordance with the conditions established by the governing bodies of UNESCO.

Article 14 – Entry into force

This Agreement shall enter into force, following its signature by the contracting parties, when they have informed each other in writing that all the formalities required to that effect by the domestic law of the Republic of Indonesia and by UNESCO's internal regulations have been completed. The date of receipt of the last notification shall be deemed to be the date of entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 15 – Duration

This Agreement is concluded for a period of six years as from its entry into force. - The Agreement shall be renewed upon common agreement between Parties once the Executive Board made its comments based on the results of the renewal assessment provided by the Director-General.

Article 16 – Denunciation

1. Each of the contracting parties shall be entitled to denounce this Agreement unilaterally.

2. The denunciation shall take effect within 60 days following receipt of the notification sent by one of the contracting parties to the other.

Article 17 – Revision

This Agreement may be revised by written consent between the Government and UNESCO.

Article 18 – Settlement of disputes

1. Any dispute between UNESCO and the Government concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement, if not settled by negotiation or any other appropriate method agreed to by the parties, shall be submitted for final decision to an arbitration tribunal composed of 3 members, one of whom shall be appointed by the Government, another by the Director-General of UNESCO, and a third, who shall preside over the tribunal, shall be chosen by the first two. If the two arbitrators cannot agree on the choice of a third, the appointment shall be made by the President of the International Court of Justice.

2. The Tribunal's decision shall be final.
