

Contents

| | | |
|------------------|---|------------|
| | Headline messages | 16 |
| | Executive summary | 18 |
| Chapter 1 | Literacy: the core of Education for All | 27 |
| | A holistic approach to Education for All | 28 |
| | Literacy for rights, capabilities and development | 30 |
| | Literate individuals and literate societies | 31 |
| | Outline of the Report | 34 |
| Chapter 2 | EFA progress: where do we stand? | 37 |
| | Education: the global story, 1998–2002 | 38 |
| | Early childhood care and education | 38 |
| | Primary education | 41 |
| | Secondary and tertiary education | 51 |
| | Learning outcomes | 58 |
| | Literacy | 63 |
| | Assessing overall progress towards Education for All | 68 |
| | Conclusion | 71 |
| Chapter 3 | Country efforts: increasing momentum | 75 |
| | Planning for EFA | 76 |
| | Financing EFA | 79 |
| | Teachers for EFA | 84 |
| | The need for inclusion | 91 |
| | Adapting to the context | 96 |
| | Safe and healthy schools | 101 |
| Chapter 4 | International commitments: time to act | 105 |
| | New but uncertain international momentum in 2005 | 106 |
| | Aid flows to education | 107 |
| | Opportunities for improving international coordination of EFA | 119 |
| | 2005 and beyond: from commitment to action | 130 |
| Chapter 5 | Why literacy matters | 135 |
| | Literacy as a right | 136 |
| | The benefits of literacy | 137 |
| | Conclusion | 145 |

| | | |
|-------------------|---|------------|
| Chapter 6 | Understandings of literacy | 147 |
| | Defining and conceptualizing literacy | 148 |
| | Understandings of literacy in the international community | 153 |
| | Other views of literacy | 156 |
| | A 'global consensus' on literacy? | 159 |
| Chapter 7 | Mapping the global literacy challenge | 160 |
| | Measuring and monitoring literacy | 162 |
| | The changing scale and scope of the global challenge | 164 |
| | Where is the literacy challenge most pressing? | 167 |
| | Social and demographic disparities in literacy rates | 170 |
| | Which background characteristics are most associated with literacy? | 175 |
| | Literacy in excluded groups | 175 |
| | Towards an expanded understanding of literacy | 179 |
| | Global literacy: the emerging challenge | 187 |
| Chapter 8 | The making of literate societies | 189 |
| | Introduction | 190 |
| | Literacy in historical perspective | 190 |
| | Major determinants of literacy transitions | 193 |
| | Languages and literacy | 200 |
| | Literacy practices | 205 |
| | Literate environments and literacy | 207 |
| | Conclusion | 212 |
| Chapter 9 | Good policy, good practice | 215 |
| | Four policy directions | 216 |
| | Three strategic considerations | 216 |
| | Promoting good practice in the learning and teaching of literacy | 217 |
| | Scaling up adult literacy programmes: the role of government | 230 |
| | Bringing greater coherence to national literacy policies | 238 |
| | Engaging the international community | 241 |
| Chapter 10 | Setting priorities for action | 247 |
| | The EFA balance sheet | 248 |
| | Priorities for action | 249 |
| Annex | Annex | 251 |
| | Appendices | 252 |
| | Statistical annex | 263 |
| | Aid data annex | 408 |
| | Glossary | 418 |
| | References | 424 |
| | Abbreviations | 445 |

List of figures, tables and text boxes

Figures

| | |
|--|----|
| 2.1: Gross and net enrolment ratios in pre-primary education, 2002 | 38 |
| 2.2: Change in gross enrolment ratios in pre-primary education between 1998 and 2002 | 40 |
| 2.3: Gross and net intake rates in primary education, 2002 | 42 |
| 2.4: New entrants into primary education: distribution by age group, 2002 | 42 |
| 2.5: Gross and net enrolment ratios in primary education, 2002 | 44 |
| 2.6: Net enrolment ratios in primary education, 1998 and 2002 | 45 |
| 2.7: Changes in net attendance rates by population group in Benin, 1996 and 2001 | 46 |
| 2.8: Survival rates to the last grade of primary education, 1998/1999 and 2001/2002 | 48 |
| 2.9: Survival rate to the last grade of primary education and percentage of primary school completers, selected countries, 2001 | 48 |
| 2.10: Gender disparities in GIRs in primary education, 1998 and 2002 | 49 |
| 2.11: Changes in gender disparities in GERs between 1998 and 2002 | 50 |
| 2.12: Percentage of repeaters in primary education, 2002 | 51 |
| 2.13: Transition rates from primary to general secondary education, 1998/1999 and 2001/2002 | 52 |
| 2.14: Change in secondary gross enrolment ratios between 1998 and 2002 | 53 |
| 2.15: Changes in the tertiary gross enrolment ratios between 1998 and 2002 | 54 |
| 2.16: Comparison of gender disparities at the end of primary education and in transition to secondary education, 2001 | 55 |
| 2.17: Gender disparities in secondary gross enrolment ratios and GNP per capita, 2002 | 56 |
| 2.18: Change in gender disparities in tertiary gross enrolment ratios between 1998 and 2002 | 57 |
| 2.19: Results of SACMEQ II (2000–2002): numeracy skills of Grade 6 students in sub-Saharan Africa | 58 |
| 2.20: Results of TIMSS 2003: mathematics achievement of Grade 8 students | 59 |
| 2.21: Results of PISA 2003: mathematics skills of 15-year-old students | 59 |
| 2.22: Evolution of TIMSS results between 1995 and 2003 | 60 |
| 2.23: Evolution of PISA results between 2000 and 2003: reading | 60 |
| 2.24: Results of SACMEQ II (2000–2002): gender disparities in reading literacy in sub-Saharan African countries | 61 |
| 2.25: Results of PISA 2003: gender disparities in mathematics achievement | 61 |
| 2.26: Gender differences in attitudes towards reading, PIRLS 2001 | 62 |
| 2.27: Gender differences in mathematics and approaches to learning mathematics, TIMSS 2003 | 62 |
| 2.28: Estimated adult literacy rates (15+): 1990, 2000–2004 and 2015 target | 66 |
| 2.29: The EDI in 2002 and its evolution since 1998 in countries with low EDI | 69 |
| 3.1: Policy commitments related to EFA goals in 2001 and 2004 conference reports by sixty-nine countries | 78 |
| 3.2: Strategies and actions on issues affecting EFA goals reported to 2001 and 2004 conferences by sixty-nine countries | 78 |
| 3.3: Total public expenditure on education as percentage of GNP, 2002 | 79 |
| 3.4: Public expenditure on education as percentage of total government expenditure, 2002 | 80 |
| 3.5: Public education expenditure as a percentage of GNP, 1998 and 2002 | 80 |
| 3.6: Share of public education expenditure by level, 2002 | 82 |
| 3.7: Share of primary and secondary education in total public current expenditure on education, percentage change from 1998 to 2002 | 82 |
| 3.8: Share of public and private education expenditure by level, 2002 | 84 |
| 3.9: Per-pupil household costs, by grade and area, 2004 | 85 |
| 3.10: Share of personnel costs in total public current expenditure on education by level of national income, 2002 | 86 |
| 3.11: Current and projected annual growth rates of teacher numbers, 1998–2002 and 2015 | 88 |
| 3.12: Percentage of trained primary-school teachers, 1998 and 2002 | 89 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 3.13: Primary teacher salaries and comparison with GDP per capita: entry level and after fifteen years' experience (PPP US$, 1999) | 90 |
| 3.14: Median share of female teachers in various levels of education by region, 2002 | 91 |
| 3.15: Education and armed conflict | 96 |
| 4.1: Total ODA 1990–2003 (net disbursements in constant 2002 US$ billions) | 108 |
| 4.2: Proportion of ODA to least developed countries in total ODA, 1990–2003 | 108 |
| 4.3: Bilateral aid commitments to education, 1990–2003 (amounts in constant 2002 US$ billions, and the share of education in total bilateral ODA) | 109 |
| 4.4: Bilateral aid commitments to basic education, 1993–2003 (amounts in constant 2002 US$ billions, and the share of basic education in total bilateral ODA) | 109 |
| 4.5: Contribution of individual DAC countries to total bilateral aid to education, 1999–2003 | 109 |
| 4.6: Contribution of individual DAC countries to total bilateral aid to basic education, 1999–2003 | 109 |
| 4.7: Bilateral commitments to education: sub-sector breakdown excluding 'education, level unspecified', 1999–2003 | 111 |
| 4.8: Relative priorities given to education and basic education by each bilateral donor country, 1999–2003 | 111 |
| 4.9: Aid to education and basic education as percentages of GNI, five-year annual averages, 1999–2003 | 111 |
| 4.10: Proportion of budget support in total ODA, 1999–2003, by type of donor | 112 |
| 4.11: Share of disbursements in 2003 for education by Australia, Sweden and the United Kingdom, by original year of commitments | 112 |
| 4.12: Regional distribution of bilateral aid to education, 1999–2003 | 113 |
| 4.13: World Bank education lending, amount and as percentage of World Bank total lending per year, 1963–2004 | 115 |
| 4.14: Composition of total World Bank education lending for 1990–2004 | 116 |
| 4.15: Regional distribution of World Bank education lending (new commitments), annual averages, 1990–2004 | 116 |
| 4.16: DAC members' ODA: 1990–2004 and simulations to 2006 and 2010 (Amount in constant 2003 US$ billions and % share of GNI) | 133 |
| 5.1: Inequality in income and inequality in literacy in OECD countries, 1994–98 | 144 |
| 7.1: Adult literacy rates: global and regional trends in gender parity, 1970 to 2000–2004 | 166 |
| 7.2: Youth and adult literacy rates for selected countries, 2000–2004 | 167 |
| 7.3: Distribution of global adult illiterate population, 2000–2004 | 167 |
| 7.4: Adult literacy rates by gender in fifty-five low-literacy developing countries, 2000–2004 | 168 |
| 7.5: Literacy rate and poverty | 169 |
| 7.6: Relationship between adult literacy and average household expenditure in India, by selected states | 169 |
| 7.7: Literacy rates for select age groups, 2000–2004 | 170 |
| 7.8: Adult literacy rates by urban/rural residence, 2000–2004 | 171 |
| 7.9: Comparison of adult literacy rates by poorest and richest wealth quintiles | 173 |
| 7.10: Adult literacy rates by three educational levels: no schooling, 1–3 years of schooling and 4–6 years of schooling, 2000 | 174 |
| 7.11: Distribution of adults by level of prose literacy proficiency, 1994–1998 | 183 |
| 8.1: Trends in literacy rates in developing countries, 1900–1950 | 192 |
| 8.2: Estimated adult literacy rates for selected countries circa 1950 | 193 |
| 8.3: Mean unadjusted primary enrolment rates in developing regions, 1880 to 1935–40 | 195 |
| 8.4: Association between unadjusted primary enrolment rate (1935–40) and adult literacy rate (circa 1950), for thirty-nine countries or territories | 195 |
| 8.5: Percentage of Grade 4 students in high-level home literacy environments (HLE) and average reading achievement score, by country, 2001 | 208 |
| 8.6: Grade 6 student reports of quantity of books in their homes in fifteen African education systems, 2000 | 208 |
| 8.7: Prevalence of newspapers, magazines and televisions in students' homes in fifteen African education systems, 2000 | 209 |
| 8.8: Percentage of Grade 6 students attending schools where there is no school or classroom library, by country, and area of residence, 2000 | 209 |
| 8.9: Percentage of Grade 6 pupils in classrooms where there are no books available, by country and area of residence, 2000 | 210 |

Tables

| | |
|--|-----|
| 2.1: School life expectancy by region in 2002 and change since 1998 | 38 |
| 2.2: Gender parity index of gross enrolment ratios in pre-primary education, 2002 | 41 |
| 2.3: Enrolment in primary education by region, 1998 and 2002 | 44 |
| 2.4: Number of out-of-primary-school children, 1998 and 2002 | 46 |
| 2.5: Gross enrolment ratios by gender in primary education, by region, 1998 and 2002 | 50 |
| 2.6: Estimates of adult illiterates and literacy rates (population aged 15+) by region, 1990 and 2000–2004 | 63 |
| 2.7: Distribution of countries by EDI values, by region, 2002 | 68 |
| 2.8: Country prospects for the achievement of universal primary education by 2015 | 70 |
| 2.9: Country prospects for the achievement of the adult literacy target by 2015 | 71 |
| 2.10: Country prospects for the achievement of gender parity in primary and secondary education by 2005 and 2015 | 72 |
| 3.1: Coverage of the EFA time-bound goals in planning documents of thirty-two countries | 77 |
| 3.2: Primary net enrolment ratios, education expenditure and teachers, 1998 and 2002 | 81 |
| 3.3: Regional distribution of population and public education spending | 83 |
| 3.4: Fees still exist in a large number of countries | 84 |
| 3.5: Grouping of countries according to primary pupil/teacher ratios, 2002 | 86 |
| 3.6: Impact of HIV/AIDS on education in five sub-Saharan countries, 2005 | 88 |
| 3.7: Strategy framework to assure gender equality in education by 2015 | 93 |
| 3.8: Annual per capita costs of school-based health and nutrition interventions delivered by teachers | 103 |
| 4.1: 2005 – Major international reports | 106 |
| 4.2: Bilateral aid commitments to basic education, 1999–2003 (amount and share of basic education in total ODA) | 110 |
| 4.3: Comparison between commitments and disbursements (current US$ millions) | 112 |
| 4.4: Annual average bilateral aid to education and to basic education received by countries with an Education Development Index (EDI) below 0.8, 1999–2003 (constant 2002 US$) | 114 |
| 4.5: Multilateral ODA: commitments of major donors, five-year annual averages, 1999–2003 | 115 |
| 4.6: HIPC completion-point triggers for education in four African Heavily Indebted Poor Countries | 117 |
| 4.7: Total ODA to education and basic education, five-year annual averages for 1999–2003 and 2003 (constant 2002 US$ billions) | 118 |
| 5.1: Political and community participation and literacy among Nepalese women | 139 |
| 5.2: UNESCO's four pillars of learning with regard to indigenous peoples | 141 |
| 5.3: Costs of adult literacy compared to primary school | 145 |
| 6.1: National definitions of literacy/illiteracy | 157 |
| 6.2: Aid agencies' definitions of literacy | 158 |
| 7.1: Global and regional trends in number of illiterates, 1950 to 2000–2004 | 165 |
| 7.2: Percentage distribution of global illiterate population, by country development status, region, gender and age | 165 |
| 7.3: Global and regional trends in adult literacy rates, 1950 to 2000–2004 | 166 |
| 7.4: Youth literacy rates by country development status and region, 1970 to 2000–2004, with percent increases in each decade | 166 |
| 7.5: Change in the illiterate population, 1990 to 2000–2004, in countries with the greatest numbers of illiterates | 167 |
| 7.6: The literacy challenge compounded: many illiterates, low adult literacy rates, 2000–2004 | 168 |
| 7.7: The literacy challenge compounded: links to poverty | 169 |
| 7.8: Morocco: Adult literacy rates by gender and urban/rural residence, 1990/91 and 1998/99 | 171 |
| 7.9: Factors significantly associated with adult literacy rates in twenty-eight developing countries: results from multivariate analyses, 2000 | 175 |
| 7.10: Nepalese adult literacy rates by caste/ethnicity, 1991 and 2001 | 176 |
| 7.11: Developing country household-based surveys with direct literacy assessments | 180 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 8.1: Correlations between measures of educational expansion and educational attainment, and literacy rates (Number of countries in parentheses) | 195 |
| 8.2: Literacy needs and languages | 203 |
| 8.3: Reported and effective adult literacy in Papua New Guinea, 1996 | 212 |
| 9.1: Three approaches to literacy acquisition | 218 |
| 9.2: Ranking of incentives other than basic pay for literacy educators in 67 programmes | 227 |
| 9.3: Examples of financial allocations to non-formal education and literacy | 234 |
| 9.4: Literacy programme costs per learner | 235 |
| 9.5: The scale of the Dakar challenge, by region and development level | 237 |
| 9.6: Estimated costs of achieving the literacy component of Dakar goal 4 | 237 |
| 9.7: Two approaches to financing literacy programmes | 241 |
| 9.8: Adult literacy targets in twenty-five developing and transition countries | 242 |
| 9.9: Literacy in bilateral and development bank aid policies | 243 |
| 9.10: Average annual funding for literacy, selected agencies | 244 |
| 9.11: Trends in major aid-financed literacy projects and programmes | 245 |

Text boxes

| | |
|--|-----|
| 1.1: The Dakar Framework for Action and the Millennium Development Goals | 28 |
| 1.2: Interpretation of EFA goals 3 and 4 | 29 |
| 1.3: Senegal's Éducation qualifiante des jeunes et des adultes | 30 |
| 1.4: A renewed attention to literacy | 32 |
| 1.5: Creating literate societies: Japan, Cuba and Germany | 32 |
| 2.1: Closing gaps in participation in primary education: the case of Benin | 46 |
| 2.2: How many children are out of school? | 47 |
| 2.3: Measuring progress towards the adult literacy target | 66 |
| 2.4: Gender disparities in enrolment ratios | 72 |
| 3.1: National strategies addressing EFA goals: some country examples | 77 |
| 3.2: Civil society involvement in EFA planning and monitoring | 79 |
| 3.3: Social accountability to improve education spending in Uganda | 83 |
| 3.4: Equity in public education spending in Mozambique | 83 |
| 3.5: Household education expenditures in Cambodia | 84 |
| 3.6: The impact of HIV/AIDS on education systems in five countries of sub-Saharan Africa | 88 |
| 3.7: Teacher salaries and working conditions in Latin America | 90 |
| 3.8: The Northern Areas Community Schools Programme in Pakistan | 94 |
| 3.9: The Niger's strategy to eliminate gender bias in schooling | 96 |
| 3.10: The impact of the 2004 tsunami on education systems | 98 |
| 3.11: Principles of emergency education | 99 |
| 3.12: Economic shocks and the quality of education: the Argentine case | 100 |
| 4.1: A debt swap for education in Argentina | 117 |
| 4.2: The Fast Track Initiative – building an international compact | 120 |
| 4.3: Resource mobilization and capacity-building by the FTI | 121 |
| 4.4: The Netherlands and France in support of the FTI | 122 |
| 4.5: The FTI in Mozambique – the donors' view | 123 |
| 4.6: Yemen benefits from the FTI | 123 |
| 4.7: Silent partnerships at work in Mali and Malawi | 125 |
| 4.8: Building capacity to meet demand | 127 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 4.9: Working together for better-quality schooling | 128 |
| 4.10: The Ten-Year United Nations Girls' Education Initiative | 129 |
| 4.11: Windows of opportunities through UNESCO-led initiatives | 131 |
| 4.12: Nine EFA Flagships | 132 |
| 5.1: The right to choose the language of learning | 137 |
| 5.2: Effects of literacy on leisure time and privacy in Pakistan | 141 |
| 5.3: Investment and literacy in Viet Nam | 144 |
| 6.1: French terms for 'literacy' | 148 |
| 6.2: Oral expression | 149 |
| 6.3: Numeracy situations | 150 |
| 6.4: Ethnomathematics | 151 |
| 6.5: Paulo Freire: reading the world | 152 |
| 6.6: UNESCO and literacy today | 155 |
| 6.7: The promotion of literacy in regional associations | 156 |
| 6.8: Some national understandings of literacy | 156 |
| 6.9: Different understandings of literacy among NGOs | 158 |
| 7.1: Determining literacy from census data | 164 |
| 7.2: Prisoners | 176 |
| 7.3: Roma in Spain | 178 |
| 7.4: Direct assessments of 'literacy as skills' | 181 |
| 7.5: Literacy surveys in Botswana and Brazil | 182 |
| 7.6: Literacy assessment in the International Adult Literacy Survey | 183 |
| 7.7: Implications for measuring and monitoring literacy | 186 |
| 8.1: Mass literacy campaigns: the United Republic of Tanzania, Somalia, Ethiopia, Thailand and Brazil | 197 |
| 8.2: Literacy stagnation and renewal in Uganda and Mongolia | 199 |
| 8.3: Illiteracy in Japan | 200 |
| 8.4: Arabic | 201 |
| 8.5: Script diversity | 201 |
| 8.6: Sign languages | 202 |
| 8.7: The diversity of literacy practices in Ghana | 206 |
| 8.8: Literate environments in China | 210 |
| 8.9: Does the prevalence of print materials, mass media and advanced technologies influence literacy rates? | 211 |
| 9.1: Nijera Shikhi's literacy programme in Bangladesh | 218 |
| 9.2: Three responses to the Reflect Mother Manual in South Asia | 220 |
| 9.3: Gender in the 'hidden curriculum' | 221 |
| 9.4: Learner-centred learning paradigms for literacy | 222 |
| 9.5: Opinions on the composition of learning groups in Uganda | 223 |
| 9.6: Approaches to the training of literacy educators | 225 |
| 9.7: Innovations in the training of adult literacy educators | 227 |
| 9.8: Major distance education projects in four E-9 countries | 228 |
| 9.9: Cuba's 'Yo, sí puedo' method | 228 |
| 9.10: A range of media for literacy acquisition | 229 |
| 9.11: Selected lessons from Ecuador's literacy campaign | 232 |
| 9.12: Literacy partnership models in Brazil | 233 |
| 9.13: Funding the training of literacy educators and their trainers | 236 |
| 9.14: GCE/ActionAid 'Benchmark statements' to help define literacy policy | 239 |
| 9.15: Three national literacy strategies | 241 |