Identification
Description: Slavonic publications in the Cyrillic script of the 15th - 1st quarter of 16 centuries. This collection of international value consists of 63 books, its greatest part being cultural heritage of Slavonic nations is kept in Russia. These are some copies or their parts in the Ukraine, Byelorussia, Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro, Romania, France, UK, USA, Croatia, Slovenia, The Czech Republic, Greece. Most of these publications are exceptionally few and some unique. They antedated the early books printed by I. Fedorov for 70 years. The main goal - the creation of an united collection on compact discs.
Management Plan
Some parts of the above mentioned material are extremely rare and fragile and kept in particular conditions.

Assessment against the Selection Criteria
Selection criteria of the above mentioned collection is the result of more than fifty years of research work of the specialists of the Russian State Library and an assessment of international resonance of users' interests.
The Slavonic publications of the Cyrillic script are a general culture property which has exerted appreciable influence on the development of the Slavonic nations. They antedated the early books printed by I. Fedorov for 70 years. The 15th to the first quarter of the 16th centuries, when these publications were brought out, got the Slavonic peoples finding their firm stand with library national languages being reaffirmed.
It is unthinkable to study the history of the universal culture, the history of books and bookprinting without addressing early printed Slavonic publications. The exceptional rarity of these publications, their decrepitude brought on by the time, the necessity of facilitating the access to them cause to be reproduced on compact discs. Another goal which is not inferior to the first one in terms of importance is, in essence, the creation of a new cultural value - a united collection of Slavonic early printed books which was never existed in any literary in the world.
