NEW FRONTIERS IN DISINFORMATION

QUALITY INFORMATION OR DISINFORMATION?

MEDIA PROFESSIONALISM AND INDEPENDENCE

- Editorial integrity
- Independent press councils and ombudspersons
- Professional organizations and peer review systems
- Regulations reconcile commercial and public interests

MANIPULATION OF NEWS

- Editorial influenced by political and commercial interests
- Inhibition of self-regulatory mechanisms
- Disrespect by media owners for professional standards
- Low degree of professional autonomy

Laws and self-regulation enable media professionals to work with integrity and dignity

Journalists' decisions are affected by interest groups
