The UNESCO Commissary, which offers tax-free articles (fine food, perfumes, gifts, etc.), is situated on the ground floor and basement level of the Fontenoy Building.

Transport Services

From the airport Roissy-Charles de Gaulle to Paris, UNESCO area

By train: RER B to Denfert Rochereau

Correspondence by underground (métro), Line 6 towards Charles de Gaulle Étoile, get off at Sèvres Lecourbe station. One underground ticket is valid for one trip regardless of the distance travelled. It is cheaper to buy 10 tickets at a time - ask for a "carnet".

By airport shuttle: Air France buses are available at the airport. The closest stop to UNESCO is at Montparnasse station. Once at the station, take the underground line 6 to Sevres Lecourbe or Cambronne stations.

By taxi: Follow the taxi signs at the airport. You may have to stand in a queue but this should move fast. Expect to pay 60 to 80 Euros.

By regular bus: Once in Paris, you may use the same tickets, coupons and cards as for the underground, one ticket per trip. You must validate the tickets on the bus. Buses passing near UNESCO are nrs. 28, 80, 82, 87 and 92.
