EMERGENCY SAFEGUARDING OF THE SYRIAN CULTURAL HERITAGE

The Emergency Safeguarding of the Syrian Cultural Heritage project funded by the European Union with the support of the German Government aims to provide an operational response to halt the on-going loss of cultural heritage and prepare post-conflict priority actions in Syria.

Activities undertaken during the first year of the project

EMERGENCY SAFEGUARDING OF THE SYRIAN CULTURAL HERITAGE

The Emergency Safeguarding of the Syrian Cultural Heritage project funded by the European Union with the support of the German Government aims to provide an operational response to halt the on-going loss of cultural heritage and prepare post-conflict priority actions in Syria.

Outputs

- 120+ international experts taking part in the International Experts Meeting for the Development of the Syrian Cultural Heritage
- 600+ x 6 detailed models of experts' guidelines
- 98 x specialized experts in conformity with UNESCO individual standards for the Syrian cultural heritage
- 39 x online documents utilized in the Syrian cultural heritage
- 100 x participants in the capacity building activities carried out during the first year of the project
- 852 x safeguarding of heritage undertaken in the frame of the project, with inspections and preparations for the post-conflict and stabilization of the Syrian Cultural Heritage

Capacity building activities

- Training on high threat trafficking of Syrian cultural assets
- Training on the Convention for the Safeguarding of the World's Cultural Heritage
- Training on preserving cultural heritage under extreme conditions and the museum from bombing
- Training on the UNESCO International Programme on the Safeguarding of Cultural Heritage
- Training on the future of the Syriac cultural heritage

Participants distribution

- 90 x Syrian
- 80 x German
- 70 x French
- 60 x Italian
- 50 x Turkish
- 40 x Russian
- 30 x Spanish
- 20 x Arabic
- 10 x English