

Second UNESCO Forum on Global Citizenship Education : Building peaceful and sustainable societies: preparing for post-2015

Driving the GCED agenda forward: Mobilizing the voices of the youth

28 January 2015

Piyali Sarkar Debnath

UNESCO MGIEP

Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Education for Peace and Sustainable Development

Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Education for Peace and Sustainable Development

Glimpses from two recent surveys

Young India Says 'Yes' to Military Rule, 'No' to Inter-Religious Mingling: An India based Survey

YOUth Speak

- A pilot survey- responses from 126 countries
- One interesting observation - curricula was not making a dent : i.e. content (covering peace, justice, human rights etc.) was not making a significant difference to the responses of youth

Focus area for youth - post 2015

Focus more on

- Critical thinking
- Creativity
- Cooperation and collaboration

through

Innovative pedagogies

Key Global YOUTH CENTERED & YOUTH -LED STRATEGIES – for Post 2015

YOUTH CENTERED

YOUTH -LED

Developing Innovations in pedagogies of learning- eg: Gaming

Mobilizing youth voices through media, especially social media

Strengthening curricula to embed GCED in mainstream subjects youth-led social initiatives/ enterprises

Fostering youth leadership -on transforming self & society eg: Young Leaders program

Enabling Youth to lead social change and transformation in education

Creating a global inclusive youth platform (online and offline)-network of networks- connect/learn/share- reaching the unreached e.g. YESPeace Network

Creating spaces to facilitate dialogue amongst youth eg: Campus programmes; exchange programme

Strengthening Collaboration and Partnership