Bringing the latest thinking in education to education specialists worldwide

Created by UNESCO, the series – Education on the Move – focuses on key trends in education today and challenges for tomorrow. The series seeks to bring research knowledge produced by various academic disciplines and within various organizations to those who can shape educational policies and drive reforms. As such, it also intends to contribute to on-going reflections on the international education agenda.

Rankings and Accountability in Higher Education
Uses and Misuses

P. T. M. Marope, P. J. Wells and E. Hazelkorn (Editors)

The growing impact of university rankings on public policy – and on students’ choices – has stirred controversy worldwide. This unique volume brings together the architects of university rankings and their critics to debate the uses and misuses of existing rankings. With voices from five continents, it provides a comprehensive overview of current thinking on the subject and sets out alternative approaches and complementary tools for a new era of transparent and informed use of higher education ranking tables.
