

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

UNESCO MOBILE LEARNING WEEK

Leveraging mobile technology for education

RESEARCH TRACK Friday 21 February 2014
UNESCO Headquarters – Paris, France

In partnership with

Sponsored by

RESEARCH TRACK

Friday, 21 February 2014

Venue: UNESCO Headquarters. Entrance: 125 Avenue de Suffren, Paris

The research track will allow scholars to share findings from their investigations of mobile learning implementations. Research will pay particular attention to policies focused on teachers.

AGENDA – ROOM 8

Time	Programme
09:30–09:50	INTRODUCTIONS, FORMAT AND OBJECTIVES
09:50–10:15	FIRST DISCUSSION: Pilots, projects and their data
10:15–10:40	SECOND DISCUSSION: The role of research and researchers
10:40–11:05	THIRD DISCUSSION: From evidence to priorities
11:05–11:30	REFRESHMENT BREAK
11:30–11:55	FOURTH DISCUSSION: Participants, stakeholders and ethics
11:55–12:20	FIFTH DISCUSSION: Research-informed funding
12:20–12:30	REVIEW
12:30–14:00	LUNCH
14:00–14:25	SIXTH DISCUSSION: Programmes, monitoring and evaluation
14:25–14:50	SEVENTH DISCUSSION: Dissemination, publication, symposia and workshops
14:50–15:00	CONCLUSIONS
15:00–15:30	COFFEE AND NETWORKING

More information:

<http://www.unesco.org/new/en/unesco/themes/icts/m4ed/unesco-mobile-learning-week-2014/>

Follow UNESCO Mobile Learning Week at: #mlw2014 or on @UNESCOICTs

UNESCO ICTs in Education

mlw@unesco.org

Founding member of

7, place de Fontenoy
75352 Paris SP 07
France
www.unesco.org

HQ-AIR-PUB
Login: hq-air – Password: uneswifi