Sir/Madam,

On behalf of the Director-General, and within the framework of the UNESCO/People’s Republic of China (The Great Wall) Co-Sponsored Fellowships Programme, I am pleased to inform you that the Government of the People’s Republic of China and UNESCO are offering seventy-five (75) fellowships for the academic year 2020-2021 for advanced studies in varied subjects for the benefit of the invited Member States (see Annex I).

These fellowships are intended for the students and scholars who wish to pursue advanced studies or undertake research at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in Chinese universities for a duration of one year. Twenty (20) of these seventy-five (75) fellowships are intended for the candidates of pre- and in-service teachers, teacher educators and trainers from the ten (10) African countries under UNESCO-China Funds-in-Trust Project (CFIT) to undertake an Advanced Teacher Training Programme at the East China Normal University.

Each invited Member State can submit two (2) candidatures at the maximum for general/senior scholar programmes, and each UNESCO-CFIT countries, exceptionally, are invited to submit four (4) candidatures (2 candidatures for the regular general/senior scholar programmes, and another 2 candidates recommended by the Teacher Training Institutions supported by UNESCO-CFIT Project). Candidates should be submitted as prescribed in the Annexes of this letter, to enable UNESCO and the authorities of the donor government to select the most qualified candidates. Special attention will be paid to female candidatures for an equal representation, given the high priority that UNESCO places on gender equality.
The annexes to this letter provide detailed information concerning the requisite qualifications, the facilities offered, the general conditions governing the award of fellowships as well as the procedures for the submission of applications.

We would be most grateful if you could submit the candidatures (letters of nomination and copies of China Scholarship Council online Application Forms together with photocopies of valid ordinary passports) by e-mail to Mr Stoyan Bantchev, Chief of the Participation Program and Fellowships Section (s.bantchev@unesco.org), with a.slojneva@unesco.org and v.lopy@unesco.org in copy by 25 March 2020 at the latest.

Yours faithfully,

[Signature]

UNESCO/PEOPLE’S REPUBLIC OF CHINA (THE GREAT WALL)
CO-SPONSORED FELLOWSHIPS PROGRAMME 2020-2021

With a view to promoting the human resource development and capacity building of developing countries and to enhancing international exchanges in the field of education, culture, communication, science and technology and the friendship among peoples of the world, the Government of the People’s Republic of China has placed at the disposal of UNESCO for the academic year 2020-2021, under the co-sponsorship with UNESCO, seventy-five (75) fellowships for advanced studies at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. These fellowships are for the benefit of developing Member States in Africa, Asia-Pacific, Latin America, Europe and Arab region (please see the list of invited Member States in ANNEX I).

Tenable at a selected number of Chinese universities, these fellowships are intended for students and scholars who plan to pursue advanced studies or undertake individual research in China for a duration of one year. Twenty (20) of the 75 fellowships are especially intended for candidatures recommended by the Teacher Training Institutions supported by UNESCO-CFIT Project in the 10 African countries to undertake an Advanced Training Programme for pre- and in-service teachers, teacher educators and trainers at East China Normal University. Most of the study programmes will be conducted in English. In exceptional cases, candidates may be required to study Chinese language before taking up research or studying in their fields of interest.

Selected candidates will undertake their studies in the host universities as visiting scholars. Extension or repeated award of fellowships will be impossible under the same UNESCO fellowships programme. Therefore, selected candidates who intend to continue their studies or pursue degrees will need to seek other types of funding after the completion of this one-year fellowship. For more information, please refer to http://www.csc.edu.cn/studyinchina or www.campuschina.org

A. FIELDS OF STUDIES AT SELECTED UNIVERSITIES

Please visit the official webpage of China Scholarship Council (CSC) for the available fields of studies in selected Chinese universities:
http://www.campuschina.org/universities/index.html

B. Eligibility

(i) Applicants applying for General Scholar Programmes must not be older than the age of forty-five (45) and should have completed at least two years of undergraduate study; and those who apply for Senior Scholar Programmes must be a master’s degree holder or an associate professor (or above) and not older than the age of fifty (50).
(ii) English proficiency is required.
(iii) Be in good health, both mentally and physically.
C. PROCEDURE FOR THE SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS

Only the applications endorsed by the relevant Government body (the National Commission for UNESCO) are receivable by UNESCO.

Eligible applicants, after receiving the endorsement of the National Commissions for UNESCO of their home countries, must submit their applications in the online application system on the official website of China Scholarship Council (http://www.csc.edu.cn/studyinchina) by 25 March 2020 at the latest with the following mandatory documents:

(i) Application Form for Chinese Government Scholarship in Chinese or English (the form can be downloaded and printed after completing the online application).

(ii) Copy of Passport Photo Page: Applicant shall submit a clear scanned copy of his/her ordinary passport with validity later than March 1, 2021. If the validity of the current passport does not meet the requirement, please apply for a new passport before submitting the application. For applicants who cannot apply for passports before submitting their applications, with the permission of dispatching authorities, they may submit scanned copy of identity certificates or official documents containing the applicants’ “English name, Gender, Nationality, Date of Birth” and other information.
