Fauna of the reserve includes 25 species of mammals, 127 species of birds and 24 of fish. Among them are 26 rare and protected (Red Books of IUCN, Russia and Krasnoyarsk region).

Maskox, acclimated to the site "Bikada" in 1974 is now widely spread through the north of Taimyr.

Taimyr population of wild reindeer is the largest in the world.

Red-breasted Goose is also included in the list of rare and endangered animals.

Fauna of the reserve includes 25 species of mammals, 127 species of birds and 24 of fish. Among them are 26 rare and protected (Red Books of IUCN, Russia and Krasnoyarsk region).

Maskox, acclimated to the site "Bikada" in 1974 is now widely spread through the north of Taimyr.

Taimyr population of wild reindeer is the largest in the world.

Red-breasted Goose is also included in the list of rare and endangered animals.