

Two-hundred young aspiring French science students will meet at UNESCO in Paris to compete in the competition 'Let's do Science'

Wednesday 24 June 2009, UNESCO, Paris

Room XII

Exhibition spaces outside Room X, XI and connecting corridor

Draft Agenda

- 8 a.m. Installation of reception stand (entrance Fontenoy)
- 8.30 a.m. Reception of participants, installation of projects
- 9 a.m. Reception of members of the jury
- 9.15 a.m. Opening of Forum (Room XII)
- 9.30 a.m. Preliminary meeting of members of the jury in Room 6018
Snack for participants
- 10 a.m.- 1 p.m. Visit of stands and science projects by the jury and public
- 12.30 Lunch (participants – cafeteria by rotation)
- 2.30 p.m. Deliberation of jury (Room 6018)
Films for participants (Room XII)
- 4 p.m. Award ceremony chaired by General Jean-Pierre Haigneré and in the presence of partners, patrons and sponsors of the competition (Room XII)
- 5 p.m. Cocktail for jury and guests
Snack for students