National Focal Points for the implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict and its two Protocols (1954 and 1999)

This list of National Focal Points for all official documents and correspondence related to the implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict and its two Protocols is published on UNESCO's website in order to encourage and facilitate bilateral and multilateral cooperation.

This list is updated regularly, and States Parties are encouraged to communicate to the Secretariat the contact details of their National Focal Point or to keep it informed of any new appointments. Unless a Party requests otherwise, the presumed focal point is the State Party's Permanent Delegation to UNESCO.

List of National Focal Points to the 1954 Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict and its two Protocols (1954 and 1999)

Introduction

UNESCO is committed to protecting personal data in line with its Principles on Personal Data Protection and Privacy (<https://www.unesco.org/en/privacy-policy>).

This Privacy Notice explains how UNESCO uses the personal data related to the National Focal Points for the implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention and its two Protocols.

What information do we collect and how?

UNESCO collects personal data (name, professional role, and contact details) of the National Focal Points for the implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention and its two Protocols, and other relevant information depending on the context.

We collect personal data for this list from the following sources:

- Official communications addressed from States Parties to the Secretariat
- National periodic reports submitted by States Parties to the Secretariat for each reporting cycle.
- Official contact details of States Parties Permanent Delegations to UNESCO
- Directly from individuals with their consent

Why is the personal data being collected?

This list of National Focal Points is published on UNESCO's website in order to encourage and facilitate bilateral and multilateral cooperation.

How will we use your personal data?

The data are publicly disclosed on UNESCO's website and are therefore freely accessible to all third parties. UNESCO may also share this list with other States Parties to the 1954 Hague Convention.

How long do we keep your personal data?

The list will be updated regularly, upon submission or update of contact details, and at least every four years following the submission of national periodic reports. Personal data may be deleted upon written request by either the concerned State Party or the individual concerned.
