

Mauricio Weibel

Editor of the journalistic investigation area of the television channel La Red

Mauricio Weibel is editor of the journalistic investigation area of the television channel La Red which also collaborates with the Journalistic Investigation Center (CIPER). He completed his postgraduate studies in Education and Public Policy. In recent years, his articles were published in a number of international media outlets. In 2011, Weibel promoted the creation of the Unión Sudamericana de Corresponsales and served as its first president. He is the author of the following books: Asociación Ilícita (2012), Traición a la Patria (2016), Los niños de la rebelión (2017), Ni orden ni Patria (2018) and La caída de las AFP (2020). In 2015, Weibel received the LASA Media Award from the Latin American Studies Association for his contributions to debate on Latin America. In 2019 he published the UNESCO Manual de Periodismo de Investigación.