SUMMARY OF THE COMMENTS, ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND/OR CONTESTATION

DETAIL OF THE COMMENTS, ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND/OR CONTESTATION REFERENCED TO THE CONTENT OR ADMISSIBILITY AND SELECTION CRITERIA

Important note: As provided for in Section 8.5.3.3 “Submission of comments or contestations” of the General Guidelines of the Memory of the World Programme, any individual or entity may, through Member States, using the National Commission for UNESCO or, in the absence of a National Commission, the relevant government body in charge of relations with UNESCO, involving, if one exists, the relevant national MoW committee, provide comments or contestations on any nomination on the grounds of its content or whether the admissibility and selection criteria have been met. Comments or contestations which go beyond these areas, however, will not be considered by the RSC. In this instance, Section 8.5.3.3.3 of the General Guidelines provides that “If a Member State contests a nomination, the applicable process is described in Section 8.6 “Incidental Process” of the General Guidelines.
